ON WILD RAMPAGE

THE FORMER CANTON MAN TORE CLOTHING TO SHREDS.

Frank Castor Terrified the Prisoners. Demolished the Lights and Sat Nude in His Cell.

Frank Castor, murderer of Patrolman Daniel E. Davis, went on a wild rampage at the county jail at Columbus again yesterday, during which he terrorized the inmates of the prison, tore every "itch" of clothing from his body, demolished all the lights he could reach and acted the part of a madman.

It was the first time that the desperado has left the couch in his cell, where he has lain in an apparently comatose condition. For days and weeks he has been perfectly still, moving only at long intervals.

Last night, however, he suddenly sprang from the couch and with face distorted and eyes protruding from their sockets, he rushed to attack his guard, a colored prisoner. The latter emitted one terror-stricken yell and vanished into an adjoining cell, locking himself in.

Prisoners in the corridor hastened to get out of the murderer's way as he stormed about, tearing his clothes and pulling his hair. He did not talk, but uttered the most gruesome and unintelligible sounds. With a piece of his shirt, which he swung over his head, he demolished all the lights in the corridor.

Shockey placed a guard of three prisoners over the man, to prevent his attempting injury to himself. For hours he sat on the edge of his couch, unmindful of his surroundings and nakedness.

Dr. George Stockton, superintendent of the Columbus State hospital, from a place of vantage, where, unobserved, he can watch every movement of Castor, will take up a vigil tonight at the jail.

He is seeking to learn whether Castor is shamming his insane actions.

MISS ROOSEVELT'S GIFTS

Will Be Shipped to Washington and Appraised.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—The costly gifts that were showered on Miss Alice Roosevelt during her trip through the Philippines and Japan will, in all probability, be brought to Washington in bond and the appraisement for the payment of duty made at the port of Georgetown, where Washington's customs duties are paid. Inasmuch as the power of appraisement is entirely with the treasury, it is believed the valuation will be placed at a reasonable figure and the duties demanded be nominal.

In all probability the department will not make the amount public, seeing no reason why an exception in this matter should be made, merely because the owner of the goods to be appraised happens to be the daughter of the President.

CONSULAR SERVICE

Secretary Root's Plans for Its Improvement Announced.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Secretary of State Root has about completed his plan for the reorganization of the diplomatic and consular service. He has very much at heart the improvement of the foreign service, and, having been given absolute authority by the President in the formulation of theories, he has worked out a scheme whereby he hopes to secure the hearty co-operation of congress. It is understood that among other things he will recommend: Increase of salaries for ambassadors, ministers and consuls.

Ownership by the United States of its foreign legations.

Merit system in the filling of vacancies in all positions under the grade of ambassadors and consuls general.

LIVELY FIGHT

Waged at New Berlin Over Incorporation and Election.

A lively fight is on at New Berlin, where party affiliations have been cast aside and two parties have been formed which are trying to elect the corporation officers. New Berlin will be an incorporated town the coming month if present plans are not spoiled by legal action, and it is then necessary to elect officials. O. J. Evans and W. H. Hoover are the two aspirants for the mayor's office, and the fight is fast and bitter. The younger element or independents are supporting Evans and the older people are helping Hoover. All parties are mixed up in the fight, and Republicans and Democrats are working together in the fight.

PROBING COUNCIL

Grand Jury Goes to Work on Charges of Attempted Graft.

Akron, O., Oct. 25.—The grand jury is not yet through investigating the Akron council. Some time ago Louis A. Miller accused four members of the council, whose names are not made known, with attempted graft in connection with the South Akron sewer. The grand jury has evidently secured some new evidence along other lines, as the council is again being investigated. Several witnesses were called before the grand jury Wednesday from the city hall.

MIDDLEBRANCH

ONE OF THE MOST PROSPEROUS TOWNS IN THE COUNTY.

Portland Cement Company's Works is the Largest Enterprise in the Thriving Village.

Middlebranch, O., Oct. 25.—Not in a day's ride by trolley or steam would one see a more thrifty, prosperous little community than this one. With a population of scarcely 300 souls, there are here five general stores, and they all are in control of men who understand their business.

The Diamond Portland Cement Co. is the backbone of the village. Here are employed no less than 165 men, who are paid good wages and who are constantly employed. The grinding department runs both day and night. Extensive alterations are being made. The plant is being enlarged so that the increasing volume of orders may be more completely cared for.

The one school here, numbering upwards of 100 pupils, is in charge of Prof. Royer, and, I understand, a large measure of success attends his efforts. There is here one church, called the Progressive Brethren, and another, two miles south of the village, a pretty Methodist Episcopal church.

The only physician is Dr. H. E. Corl, whose practice extends miles into the country.

About every house in the village is painted, yards are neatly kept, and several new dwellings are in process of erection.

This enterprising, growing, substantial community is to be congratulated. It needs no defense. H. W. W.

BELDEN AVENUE

WHITE RIBBONERS

In Convention May Take Action in the Traffic of Young Women.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 25.—The White Ribbon hosts began arriving by the hundreds this morning to attend the convention which opens in this city today. Among the specials arriving today were those bearing delegates from New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Minnesota and Virginia, as well as a general special train carrying 400 delegates from all parts of the east.

Mrs. Lillian N. Stevens, national president, and her staff were at once escorted to the Hotel Pepper.

"Speaking of the coming convention, Mrs. Stevens said: 'Of course, it is a little early to discuss what we will take up in the convention, but you may be sure that we shall touch upon all the great questions affecting temperance and purity. There is no doubt we shall, at least, pass resolutions about the fearful traffic in girls brought to light through the importing to China of young women who come to the large cities to find employment as domestics. We are ready for a great convention, and if we are a little travel worn, we are not too weary to handle the questions that are to come before us.'"

AFTER 35 YEARS' WORK

THE MINISTER IS EXPELLED

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 25.—After a trial on charges of heresy lasting two days the Nebraska presbytery tonight suspended Rev. Carl G. Hallhurst, as a member of the church and expelled him from the ministry which he had followed for 35 years. Specific allegations against him were that he had in the pulpit and through the newspapers repudiated the Westminster confession, the tri-personality of God, the fall of Adam and the vicarious atonement. The vote in favor of expulsion was unanimous upward of 40 ministers from all parts of the state participating in the verdict.

NOT A CANDIDATE

FOR THE PRESIDENCY, SAYS SECRETARY TAFT.

He Declares That He Will Stay in the Cabinet as Long as He Can.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—Secretary Taft this afternoon authorized the statement that he is not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. He will remain in the cabinet and continue control of the two great undertakings placed in his hands—building the Panama canal and civilizing the Philippines.

Secretary Taft's announcement was made as the result of recent declarations that he will resign within a year and make a canvass for the presidential nomination. When questioned on this point he said:

"I will stay in the cabinet as long as I can. I have no intention of making a campaign for the presidency."
